

Name: Bernard Boekelman

Arrival Date: 18 Mar 1889

Port of Arrival: New York

Destination: USA

Age: 50

Gender: Male

Occupation: Professor

Relationship to Head of Household: Head of household

Origin: Holland

Purpose: Transit, Tourist

Port of Departure: Le Havre, France

Ship Name: Lachampagne

Ship accommodations: First Class Cabin

Original name on record: Boekelman Bernard

Source Information:

Swierenga, Robert P., comp.. Dutch Immigrants: New York Passenger Lists, 1881-1894 [database on-line]. Provo, UT, USA: Ancestry.com Operations Inc, 2004. Original data: New York. Passenger Lists of Vessels Arriving at New York, New York, 1820-1897. Washington, D.C.: National Archives and Records Administration. Micropublication M237. Rolls # 433-635.

Description:

Since the founding of New Netherland in 1615, the Dutch have been coming to America. While ongoing since that time, Dutch immigration has ebbed and flowed based on economic conditions and world events. The primary reason for Dutch immigration was not... Learn more...